Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Recitations such as "said sliding window pane" on line 5 of claim 1 and "the two jaws" on line 2 of claim 9 render the claims indefinite because they lack antecedent basis. Note that the window pane set forth in claim 1 can be a fixed window pane. Recitations such as "a flange" on line 2 of claim 10 render the claims indefinite because it is unclear if the applicant is referring to the flange set forth above or is attempting to set forth another flange in addition to the one set forth above. Recitations such as "a single-flange type slideway" on lines 1-2 of claim 11 render the claims indefinite because it is unclear what the applicant is attempting to set forth. What comprises a "single flange type slideway"?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dover. Dover discloses a weatherstrip forming a slideway for a motor vehicle window 24, the strip comprising a fixing portion 26 in the form of a channel-section clip suitable for engaging on a flange 28 of the frame of a window opening of the vehicle, a support portion 30, 42, 52 having integral therewith one or more sealing lips 62 and 64 suitable for coming into sliding contact with the sliding window pane 24, and a hinge portion 44 between the fixing portion and the support portion, wherein the fixing portion comprises a rigid thermoplastic material without the presence of reinforcing means (see column 5, lines 56-58), a retaining abutment 48, a lip 46.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed August 10, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to the applicant's comments concerning Dover, the examiner respectfully disagrees. Dover discloses a support portion having integral therewith one or more sealing lips. Nothing in the claimed invention prevents the support portion from comprising more than one element. Therefore, as indicated in the rejection above, the support portion comprises the insert 30, the rigid strip 42 and the leg 52. Since the sealing lips are integral with the insert 30 and the insert 30 comprises a portion of the support portion, the sealing lips are integral with the support portion.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

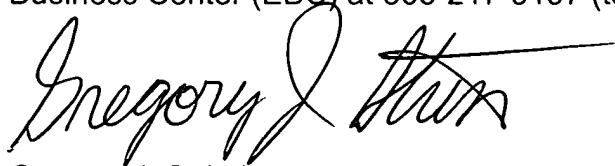

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
